An elegant, iconic estate producing world-class wines located in the Chalk Hill Appellation of Sonoma County. Since its founding in 1972, Chalk Hill has been one of Sonoma County's benchmark producers. For nearly four decades the winery has produced exceptional wines that have received high acclaim from the trade, press and consumers.

Chalk Hill Estate is one of the most spellbinding wineries in the world. Hidden in the rugged foothills of the Mayacamas Mountain Range that divides Napa and Sonoma Counties, the winery offers extraordinary scenery, a sense of serenity and seclusion, cooling maritime breezes, and a providential climate for wine grapes. More than 1,300 acres are devoted to vineyards, a winery, hospitality center, culinary garden, residence, stables, equestrian pavilion, sports fields, fishing and swimming ponds, guest houses and expansive wilderness areas.

ESTATE CHAPEL

Set amidst the vineyards, the Chalk Hill Estate Chapel provides quiet respite for those who enter into the mission-style church. The tower houses bells from the “Whitechapel Bell Foundry”- the same manufacturer who forged the liberty bell. Hand-hewn timbers, native Mexican tiles and volcanic rocks blend artfully with the earth-toned walls. The altar is a polished side of an 8-ton boulder. Pew end panels were carved from a magnificent wind fallen heritage oak. This is the perfect setting for an intimate wedding.
